VIRGINIA NINE LOSES.

Philattelphis, May 2.—Wildness on the part of the Virginia pitchers, together with a shady decision by the unpitch, to-day gave Penneylvania a victory, 5 to 4. Penneylvania only made three hits-two in the first and one in the seventh—but they all came at the psychological moment and counted heavily in the sporting they all came at the psychological moment and counted heavily in the seventh. When Virginia tied the secre, and Marshall was little improvement until heavild down in the sighth. The Quakers helped the Southerners to rain by well-belding in the inviting they scored.

There was a lively aquable helwest believe to teams, and the implication of the week them, and the implication of the work hinning, when the latter allowed King to take his hase on being hit by a pitched ball.

Pimilico Race Track, May 2.—Cleverly ridden by H. Stone. High Hat, formerly owned by Billy Garth, who was claimed by the Beyewick Stables in a Selling event the last time out, won his sixth straight race at Pimilico to-day, annexing the Electric Park Steeplechage for four-year-olds and up. A. D. Parr's Trudo, the favorite in the betting in the race. broke his front right leg is landing after going over the last limp of the race and had to be destroyed. Trudo was also forperly owned by Billy Garth, and won a number of races on the flat at Pimilico before being schooled over the jumps.

The speculators had a difficult time picking the winners this afternoon, for only two favorites went over A killing was made in the sixth race when Capt. Swamms, heavily played 7 to 3, come under the wire in front. The prettient finish of the day was in the second event. When Old Cnin, of R. T. Wilson, Jr. as string, won after a tusied through the stretch with the favorite, Rungling, The thoroughtness were handly a head apart during the last 100 yards of the journey, and it required superh borsemanhilt for Hoppins en Chi Coln to keep his meant's head in front.
